

Media Year 13 Personalised Learning Checklist

	R	A	G
Research Investigation
Decide on title for research investigation area
Investigate and make notes on original texts the equivalent of two full length films, two magazines or a TV series depending on area of study.
Investigate and make detailed notes on critical opinions from the media about the chosen topic area – keep a note of all sources
Investigate and make detailed notes on academic research published about the chosen topic area – keep a note of all sources
Write up the essay in 1800 words (+/- 10%)
Write up a detailed annotated bibliography of all research
Practical production piece:
Decide on a response to critical investigation
Submit a detailed plan and storyboard to plan the practicalities.
Film
Edit
Invite audiences in for screenings and feedback.
Edit and put to disc- including all your info
Skills:
Write in a confident, analytical voice.
Paragraph and write in continuous prose.
Use full stops and commas correctly.
Use apostrophes correctly.
Use appropriate terminology.
Support all ideas with research.
Use appropriate theories.			